

able to choose the correct hairstyle according to the way she looks.” First the face is thoroughly cleaned and then the concealer is applied in areas where the skin colour is not uniform or patchy. It is mainly used to conceal dark circles and other blemishes in the skin. The pancake is applied next to the skin texture giving the face a uniform base on which the next layer of make-up can be built upon. According to the skin tone, the correct shade of foundation is smoothed over. It should be applied in such a way that it blends in with the skin colour. The concealer, pancake, and the foundation are applied both on the face and neck. Next the eyeliner, the mascara and the eye shadow are applied and then compact and translucent powder added to hide the shine, as touch-up. The lips are outlined with a lip liner and then filled out with lipstick. To give the bride a special glow, a light touch of ‘glitters’ is added over the eyebrows, cheekbones and the chin.

Mrs. Krishna lists some absolute no-no in bridal makeup, “Eye shadow colours must suit the skin colour, so daring colours like blue and green must not be used. They tend to give a weird look to the face. Maroons and browns are the best lipstick shades for our skin types, therefore pinks should be avoided, as they clash with our dusky skin colour”. She says that gold tones are the best for our skin types, they highlight the face and make the bride look luminous and attractive. The make-up will last for 4 hrs and the bride is advised to blot out the beads of sweat and not rub or wipe it, because then the make-up will be removed from that spot, and the original skin colour will show as a patch. Hairstyles range from the simple French braid to the complex buns and rolls. Pearls, rhinestones, flower buds, golden lace, satin ribbons, jewelled hair bands, are used for decorating the hairstyle.

Country Club

Begumpet, Hyd.

So you have become an owner of a Banjara Hills residence, a string of credit cards and well.. is something missing? a club membership may be?? What best way to announce your success than to show off that exclusive club membership. And in Hyderabad the most prominent social club is the Country Club at Begumpet. The century old club house was once the residence of the prime minister of Nizam, Nawab Wali Ud Doula. The enterprising Chairman and Managing Director of Amruta Group started the club way back in 1989, when there was not much club scene in Hyderabad. And the dynamic club did not take long to begin a high profile social scene. Parties and do's here made it to the celebrity watch columns in the newspapers. The club is known for organizing exciting and entertaining events during festivals, holidays and even weekends !! The immaculate lawns of the club are the venue for almost all the happening events in the town. But its USP is its facilities, we can surely say is one of the best in twin-cities. They include temperature controlled swimming pool, fitness centre, squash court, flood lit tennis courts, cricket nets, licensed shooting gallery, reading room, card room, billiards, discotheque, children's play pen, beauty parlour, four restaurants, conference facilities and of course the lawns.
