

REALITY IN ASTROLOGY

There is a famous law in physics that speaks about the conservation of energy. It says, Energy can neither be created nor destroyed but can be converted into other forms. This aptly suits to understand the energy in human beings. Every human possesses certain energy. It is up to the humans to use their energies in the form they desire respectively. Some use it for philanthropy, some for misanthropy, some for philosophy and thus the slate continues. But it should be known that the origin for all these activities is energy, which is unique in every human being. The status of energy dwelling in the soul decides the destiny of the soul. And this status can be fathomed by using certain mundane attributes. And those attributes reside in Astrology.

The science of Astrology took its birth and widened its wings, through the flow of thought that was beyond the normal five senses, by great rishis. With a blend of extra sensory powers, those scholars practiced and refined the science by a simultaneous process of exploring, identifying, interpreting, inferring and concluding. It is to be understood that the astrology is the compass that shows the direction to humans. Only the determination in very higher degrees can surpass the boundaries drawn under the influence of Astrology. Through the astrological charts the driving forces of the soul, the forces acting on it, its desired destiny, its experiences, the lesson that it has to learn out of experience and so on can be determined.

Vakkantam Chandra Mouli

It is a common doubt among the heretics that how the planets which are light years away from us can influence our lives! Yes, they do. Planets are the celestial bodies those emit certain cosmic rays.

Planets are everlasting and they are supreme in strength when compared to tiny human beings. Leaving aside the stories or fables about the planets, it is a known fact as per the emission of rays is concerned. Among the nine celestial bodies those considered in Astrology, every human

Among the nine celestial bodies those considered in Astrology, every human being undoubtedly feels the influence of Sun. It is clear that while some can endure to certain degrees of temperature, some to other.